Conejo Valley Chapter Proudly Present our Special Guest

The multi-talented Fritz Coleman

Did you know that L.A.'s favorite TV weatherman is also a stand-up comic?

Fritz Coleman is NBC4's weathercaster on the weekday editions of "Channel 4 News" and a broadcasting icon. He has been named "Best Weathercaster" in nearly every major newspaper in Southern California.

A long-time stand-up comic, Fritz Coleman has performed at The Improvisation, The IceHouse and other Southern California comedy clubs. He has written, produced and starred in three one-man plays, and devotes much of his free time to charitable activities. The City of Los Angeles named him a "Treasure of Los Angeles" in 1999, and the United States House of Representatives gave him the Humanitarian of the Year Award for his fundraising efforts on behalf of the American Red Cross.

His presentation is one you will not want to miss!

A Message from Your Presidium

Marsha Rosenblum and Ellie Puls

We spent some time recently looking back at what a great year the Conejo Valley Chapter has just finished and what a great start we look forward to for this year. The Membership Luncheon started us off with a bang both socially and financially and the Books N Brunch was the icing on the cake. Barbara Polisky outdid herself in planning both. Joy Krieger arranged all our Special Events and we got to enjoy such diverse programs as a Klezmer Band at our Chanuka party and John V. Shields, the former CEO of Trader Joe's. As was brought out at our installation which Artheen Block so beautifully arranged, "We have met our financial and membership goals and exceeded our friendship goals". What an accomplishment last year was and if the Silent Movie is any indication, this year will be even better. Carol Smith provided us with an evening that was such fun! We really are benefiting so much from our relationship with Brandeis.

This started us thinking about the University and its beginning. To prove that great minds think alike, we got the following article from the San Diequito Chapter soon afterwards. We decided to share it with you because it makes all that we have accomplished this year, while we were having such fun, seem so worthwhile.

As you know, Brandeis University was founded in 1948 and named for the late Justice Louis Dembitz Brandeis; it is the only nonsectarian, Jewish-founded University in the country, known for its academic excellence and ideals of social justice.

At the time of Brandeis' founding, eight women from Boston, all leaders in the community, were asked to help in supporting this new university. They were given the task of building up the collection of 2,000 books in the Library, which was housed in a converted horse stable. They started a campaign called Books for Brandeis and asked $5 for annual membership. Over the years, we have placed over one million books in the Brandeis libraries, and have raised over $117 million for Brandeis University libraries, scholarship and research. How we have grown!

Our chapter is still new, and in a time when 2 chapters have recently closed, we have been so successful. You all deserve special thanks for working so hard and for being outstanding women. While most of us did not attend Brandeis University and have never visited, we are dedicated supporters to a university that prides itself in bringing together many people of different ethnic, religious and cultural backgrounds both at the University and here in the Conejo Valley.

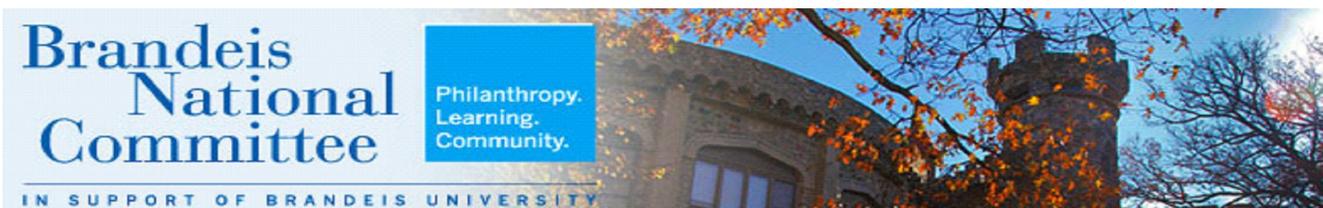

Warm regards and happy healthy New Year to you and yours!

Your Presidium:

BNC

Mission Statement:

Brandeis National Committee is dedicated to providing philanthropic support to Brandeis University, a distinguished liberal arts and research university founded by the American Jewish community. Its membership is connected to the university through fundraising and through activities that reflect the values on which the university was founded: academic excellence, social justice, nonsectarianism, and service to the community.

Brandeis University policy for sharing names

"It is the policy of Brandeis University, the Brandeis National Committee, and the Conejo Valley Chapter that membership lists and event registration lists may not be shared with other organizations. They are the property of the Conejo Valley Chapter. In order to insure the privacy of each individual, our members may not use our lists for any purpose other than that for which they were created."

On August 1, 2011 our Memoir Writing Study Group had our tenth meeting at the lakeside home of Sandy Locks.

Lakeview setting for our meeting.

Our meetings on the first Monday of every month are very special. They are strong and introspective. Each time we gather we say this meeting is the best! We share our ideas, our memories, our love of life with each other as we produce written documentation for our family members who are present and those that will come in the future. We have acknowledged the need for documenting and preserving our thoughts and ideas in written form. We have written our Ethical Wills, accepted the responsibility of producing a Family Tree, answered difficult and thought provoking questions and are continuing to gather as we write our memories. Presently, we are writing Tributes to people we love. The anticipation of our meetings is strong with emotions, opinions, beliefs, memories, points of view, attitudes, and the love of sharing our life-experiences. We share a great depth and a great intensity when we are together. We have formed a strong community of affection and trust.

The Festival of the Creative Arts at Brandeis was founded in 1952 by the legendary American composer and Brandeis faculty member Leonard Bernstein. It was dedicated to the belief that "the art of an era is a reflection of the society in which it is produced, and through creative endeavors the thoughts and expression which characterize each generation are revealed and transformed.

That historic event included the premieres of Mr. Bernstein's opera "Trouble In Tahiti" and Marc Blitzsteing's translation of "The Threepenny Opera" performed by Lotte Lenya. The festival offered dance performances by Merce Cunningham, music by Aaron Copland and Miles Davis.

BNC Summer Party

There were 35 members of BNC-Conejo including friends, and spouses at our Silent Movie Summer Party. Everyone had a fabulous time. Our host and hostess Jenice and Ken Rosen were so very gracious. In addition, Jenice told us the history of their 1927 Wurlitzer organ and how they acquired it. Ken not only played the accompaniment to the movies, he led us in an old fashioned sing-along. Halfway through the entertainment, we took time out for a wonderful dinner catered by Stone Fire Grill, followed by a delightful movie "The Immigrant". We ended the evening with yummy desserts. This was a successful event by all standards: the guests had a really fun evening different from most others and we raised over $500.00 for BNC-Conejo.

Small events for June was a great success, we had approximately 84 members attending and we made a profit of $684.

The event was at Chabad on Townsgate in Westlake Village. Catering was done by Rabbi Sapo's wife and she did a fantastic job, no shortage of food and beautifully displayed. We were all very pleasantly surprised.

Our speaker was John V Shields Jr. former CEO of Trader Joe's. He was a most interesting speaker and held a captivated audience whilst describing his career moves, he now lives in University Village.

I Thank all of my friends for supporting this event - I applaud you and here's to the next event in December, Please come.

colors of the flame

Traditions passed down over centuries and across generations -- traditions that are a part of the collective conscious of the Jewish tribe -- contain meanings that reverberate in the collective unconscious of Jewish mysticism, the Kabbalah.

Strike a match and hold it to the wick of a plain white candle. Behold the flame. Dressed in yellow and blue, surrounded by a shadow glow, the flame dances. It whispers. It holds secrets. Fire holds us captive in its magic, its mystery, its mutability. Without it we would perish. It is a metaphor for our relationship to G-d.

There are secrets inherent in the Hebrew prayers that fill our hearts with the light of the flame of the soul. The blue of the flame pulses around the wick like a heart burning with love.

Surrounding the blue heart is the yellow...which the soul embodies the essence of each being. The yellow of the flame never touches the wick just as our soul is never connected to our physicality.

The glow or aura surrounding the flame has the most power, the most might. The aura is a fusion of the blue and yellow, of the heart and soul, of the Shabbat flame. Heart. Soul. Might.

A phrase of from a Hebrew prayer recited each day translates as: "And you shall love G_d with all your heart, and with all your soul and with all your might."

The essence of this prayer, the essence of any prayer, connects each of us to the Source of all energy, far above any name we might give it. Consider the flame of a lit candle as an emblem of that energy, around us and within us.

Heart. Soul. Might.
