Getting old isn't pretty but Fritz proves it sure is funny.

Fritz Coleman leads a double life. When he's not providing weather forecasts, there's a good chance he is doing stand-up comedy somewhere to benefit charity. . A Southern California broadcasting icon, Coleman is well known for his sense of humor and has written, produced, and starred in three one-man plays. Fritz has been Southern California's weathercaster for NBC 4 News since 1982. He has been named "Best Weathercaster" in nearly every major paper in Southern California.

Coleman frequently organizes evenings of entertainment for local service and civic organizations. He has won a number of awards and honor for his dedication to community.
