

Once upon a time...

ONE YEAR LATER.....

In the Brandeis Kingdom of Conejo Valley.... there resides several new J Princesses and 2 Handsome Princes.

It just so happens that we have two authentic Princesses

The first authentic JP is Jessie Pearlman, my partner in crime.
Together we get things done, all in good time.

The second legitimate JP is Judy Perlman, re-enrollment retention,
She persistently emails, calls, and nudges until she has everyone's attention.

Diane Cohan, Recording Secretary bar none, efficiently and speedily gets the job done

Rita Wolenick and Phyllis Wilner our Membership chairs
Together they entice new members. What a great pair!

Janet Brasler is the veteran of study group VPs.
She handles her position with creativity and ease.

Florence Prushan takes responsibility with confidence and communicates effectively with warmth and good sense.

Pam Muler , VP of portfolio C is a team player who aims to please

Barbara Polisky , Major Events
Agonizes over whom we should present

Barbara Piefer efficient in the tribute and corresponding secretary jobs that she holds executes the written thoughts as soon as she is told

Carol Smith sells Brents cards,
a worthy fundraiser you can't disregard
For Camp Brandeis as Leadership Chair
She is ready and willing to prepare

Our registrars, Elaine Leff, Diane Cohan and Jenna Katz are constantly pulling ideas out of their hats they work hard to precisely calculate making sure everything is up to date

Social Justice advocates Janet Brasler & Penny Greenblatt have such great ideas like diplomats, Knitting for the armed forces, shoes for the souls
Feeding the poor. What are their next goals?

Treasurer, Judith Stalk ,on time with her report balances the budget to avoid being short

Parliamentarian, Sharon Cohen, our reporter, keeps us in line with Roberts Rules of Order

Information Officer Rosanne Lieban, does impart
Brandeis educational information to keep us smart

Our Historian, Helene Lustig creates a scrapbook of our yearly shindigs

Sue Geiger and Del Smulowitz, Special Events enthusiastically researches to their content.
They find good talent in our local area which prevents them from having a major hysteria.

Susan Barnett, a jack of all trades Nominating Chair, Major Events, and Constant Contact's visual aids.

Fredda Katz our E-Blast Queen creates the best study group news that we have ever seen.

Membership Registrar, Madeline Ellis keeps trying to quit
She really loves her job but hates to admit.

Men's Participation, Paul Fisher our enthusiast continues to create new men's study groups to our list
We applaud his determination and motivation to procure more men for our organization.

Computer Whiz, Ron Mittelman, is technically savvy, creates the data base, runs the reports, and stores every item in its place.

Webmaster, Alvira Klain, has to ascertain what goes on line.
And then she manipulates, edits, and refines.

Publicity, Rita Zarell, spreads the word.
She advertises our Chapter's news. Have you heard?

Decorating Maven, Marcia Goldin, with creative ideas, she is ready to begin.

Installation, Judy Elkins, is a pro.
Always making this a top-notch show
She is very qualified and organized so that every individual will be recognized.

Collectively we have produced the greatest Board of all because individually you are on the ball.
We thank you from the bottom of our hearts for stepping in and effectively doing your part
We are so grateful that we had this opportunity to work with you.
And now it is time for someone new.
