We Are Honored To Present
Brandeis University Professor

Dr. Antler

Professor of American Jewish History and Culture

Joyce Antler is a professor of American Jewish History and Culture and Women's and Gender Studies at Brandeis University.

Joyce Antler is a social and cultural historian, with special interests in the history of American women; history-as-theater; the history of education, and women's biography. She has written widely on the history of women, and on Jewish women, and is currently working on a book on women's liberation and Jewish identity. She is also a prize-winning historical dramatist, and works with her students to create original documentary dramas on matters of social urgency.

One of her very well known books: You Never Call! You Never Write! A History of the Jewish Mother, provides an illuminating and often amusing history of one of the best-known figures in popular culture--the Jewish Mother over.

She reminds us of a time when Jewish mothers were admired for their tenacity and nurturance, as in the early twentieth-century image of the "Yiddische Mama," a sentimental figure popularized by entertainers such as George Jessel, Al Jolson, and Sophie Tucker, and especially by Gertrude Berg, whose amazingly successful "Molly Goldberg" ruled American radio and television for over 25 years. But she also uncovers a new counter-narrative, leading feminist scholars and stand-up comediennes to see the Jewish Mother in positive terms.

A joy to read, You Never Call, You Never Write will delight anyone who has ever known or been nurtured by a "Jewish Mother," and it will be a special source of insight for modern parents. As Antler suggests, in many ways, "we are all Jewish Mothers" today.

BNC

Mission Statement:

Brandeis National Committee is dedicated to providing philanthropic support to Brandeis University, a distinguished liberal arts and research university founded by the American Jewish community. Its membership is connected to the university through fundraising and through activities that reflect the values on which the university was founded: academic excellence, social justice, nonsectarianism, and service to the community.

Co-Presidents' Message

As we have settled into our roles as Co-Presidents, we are acutely aware of how far we have come, how much we have learned, how much more we want to do, and how much we love our jobs. Now that doesn't mean...every day, all the time, everything is bliss, but we feel lucky to work together as partners and to have the opportunity to work for and on behalf of this wonderful chapter.

We are thankful for our hard-working and supportive Board and all those other members who have stepped up to help increase our membership, attend our events, lead our study groups, and enhance our chapter in so many different ways.

As we thank those who have impacted our chapter, we must mention our dear Edie Dellorco, who passed away this week. She was one of our most active members, serving on the Board for several years, participating in groups such as current events, memoir writing, and a movie group. She alone founded our Community Service Committee that has grown and thrived over the past few years and for which she was honored as Woman of the Year. She was truly a role model, personifying all that Brandeis National Committee means to us, especially friendship, learning, and dedication to the greater good.

There is a role for you to play in promoting new and creative ideas for our chapter in the coming months. Everyone one of you has talents and experience that can benefit and improve our chapter. Be part of our team and enjoy the journey with us. Our Nominating Committee will meet next month. Let us know what we can do for you and what you can do for us. Sue and I look forward to the adventures and to the challenges ahead and with your help, we look forward to successfully meeting all our goals.

Thank you,

Your Co-Presidents:

Nancy Minkow NVMLCSW@aol.com 818-730-8797
Sue Geiger sueaew@sbcglobal.net 805-587-8550

Brandeis Conejo Community Social Justice / Committee Service
Our Community Service Committee believes that you will "Empower Yourself" by Giving Back.

Two weeks ago, the Social Justice Committee enjoyed a lovely lunch with Edie Dellorco. Edie had several bags of donations to be distributed to those in need. She and I had spoken several times before she passed away. She and I were co-leaders for many years; her wisdom and dedication made our committee dynamic and fun. I recall our making challahs with hundreds of friends and daughters, offering a wonderful evening in support of Israel. This year, our Chanukah Party will provide food for SOVA Food

Bank, Toys for Tots, Conejo Valley and Ronald McDonald House. Thank you to members who have donated toiletries for the homeless, and For Our Troops, These items can be obtained from hotel visits with no charge added on your hotel bill. With coupons, you can buy one can of food and get one can at no charge. We are delighted to welcome a new member, Barbara Hersh, to our group. When we get out in the community, we spread the word and the good deeds of our chapter. Being concerned for the needs of our community does our heart good" Enjoy a healthy and wonderful

Study Group Committee Report for Brandeis Conejo

Winter Edition 2015

WE ARE LISTENING.....

As you can see based on the groups mentioned below we have heard your suggestions and are in the process of bringing them to fruition. Please continue to let the Study Group VPs know your ideas for new study groups.

NOW YOU CAN DO YOUR PART:

Brandeis members: If you have asked to be in a group and you have received an email or a phone call because we, the VPs are trying to start a group or fill a vacancy, PLEASE return the call /email and indicate whether or not you are still interested. The VPs are trying to fill the needs and wishes of the members, but when you do not respond, it slows down the process and you will be removed from the list.

Please contact: Judy Perlman at judithfp@gmail.com if you are interested in the following groups:

Creative Writing/Memoir Writing Study Group:

If you're interested in writing a memoir, short story, magazine article, novel or poetry then our Study Group is exactly what you want. We are open to anyone from a fledgling writer to someone that has written a novel and is excited to share with the group. We meet on the 1st and 3rd Tuesday of the month from 10:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. There are limited spaces available.

Women's Issues:

Interested in talking, laughing, learning, sharing information about topics that are important to you? "The Salon" meets the third Monday of the month from 11-1 including lunch provided by the host of the month.

Walking on Wednesday:

We need more walkers. Give it a try. Every Wednesday at 9:30 AM.

MEN's Sport Group

Want to talk sports or maybe even attend an event? There are a few men who are eager to start a group but we need more men who want to get together once a month. Try it!

Mah Jongg:

We are trying to start one more group and two tables are better than one. Right now we are trying for one table, but who knows; two might happen as well. If you already play, let us help coordinate a new group of Brandeis players.

And How about a Men's Lunch and Learn:

A few men have expressed interest and have requested an attempt to start this group. We need many more men to be willing to meet once a month, have lunch, and listen to and perhaps learn, laugh, enjoy a guest speaker.

On The Town:

There are two enthusiastic and very capable new members who are rarin' to go to start and lead a new On The Town Group. It will meet the first Tuesday of the month and will include day and some evening outings. Sounds terrific, but we need you to respond.

Interested in learning about Critical Thinking?

This could be a fascinating and enlightening group open to many phases of critical thinking; from art, and science to the spoken and written word. This would be a new group so we need your response and we will figure a day and time once we get going.

CIO DECEMBER 2015 REPORT (by Shelly Wasserman Chapter Information Officer)INTERESTING FACTS FROM BRANDEIS UNIVERSITY*ALUMNI IN THE NEWS

Tony Goldwyn '82 recalled his days as a Brandeis student. Brandeis alumni and current chapter members in Southern California met the president- President Fitzgerald Grant III of "Scandal" fame, that is.

Tony Goldwyn, who stars as the problem-plagued president of the United States in the hit television series, spoke about his days as a Brandeis student; his roles in front of and behind the camera; and the downside of celebrity during a captivating discussion at The Ebell theater of Los Angeles.

Goldwyn recalled Brandeis as being a "very entrepreneurial place. "I found a real community of friends at Brandeis". If students weren't cast in shows, they would get together and put on their own." He is still a committed Brandeis benefactor and member of the alumni family.

Brandeis counts among its graduates three Pulitzer Prize winners, Emmy Award winners, best-selling authors - even a Nobel laureate. But it doesn't stop there. Brandeis graduates occupy leadership roles in virtually every walk of life. Brandeis has been ranked among the top 35 national universities by U.S. News & World Report every year since its inception.

FUTURE EVENTS

Monday, January 4, 2016, University on Wheels, when we welcome Brandeis University Professor Joyce Antler. She is the author of the book "You Never Call! You Never Write!: a History of the Jewish Mother." Event to take place at the Thousand Oaks Library - 1:00 p.m. Information to follow.

Sunday, February 28, 2016 the wonderful Fritz Coleman will join us for an afternoon of laughter at Temple Etz Chaim at 1:00 P.M., 1080 E. Janss Road Thousand Oaks, CA 91360. Information to follow.
