We Are Honored To Present
Brandeis University
Senior Lecturer Jennifer A. Cleary discussing
“Theater for Social Change”

Professor Cleary has taught in the theater arts department at Brandeis University for 17 years, mentoring and teaching stage management, oral communication and applied theatre. She earned her EdM in Arts-in – Education from Harvard University and is a proud member of Actors' Equity Association. Professor Cleary received the Louis Demitz Brandeis Prize for Excellence in Teaching in 2015.

“Theatre of the Oppressed” is the key work of Brazilian theater director Augusto Boal who was influenced by Brazilian educator-philosopher Paolo Freire. Boal believed that theater has a purpose and power beyond mainstream theater forms, particularly in helping those facing oppression.

He coined the concept of an audience of “Spect-actors,” actively rehearsing ideas for change in people’s lives, rather than being passive spectators. Professor Cleary will discuss his methods of using theater techniques to help create social dialogue and talk about his influence and legacy around the world.

Lecture will be held in Marvin E. Smith
Community Room
Thousand Oaks Library

1401 E. Janss Rd. Thousand Oaks

Donations are $20.00. Reservations are suggested and appreciated.

Co-Presidents' Message

At this holiday season, Sue and I are reflecting on what this time of year means to us and perhaps to many and most of you as well. At Thanksgiving our greatest thanks were for family, good health, and good friends. As we start the giving and receiving of gifts during Chanukah and Christmas, we think about the joy of that process and how we can extend it beyond our family and friends to the community and world around us. Whether it means we give to Toys for Tots, or food to Sova, or feed the homeless, it feels good to know we are reaching out and touching others.

For those of us in the Brandeis community it means supporting Brandeis as well. We do that in many ways. We do it by joining Brandeis and its Study Groups and by attending Brandeis events. It also means giving back by donating to Brandeis Medical Research to find a cure for Alzheimer's and other neurodegenerative diseases. At this wonderful time of year when our hearts and stomachs are full, let's open our wallets and give to Brandeis so others can give thanks for healthy families as we are able to do.

Thanks,

Nancy and Sue

Happy Holidays and Happy New Year

Mission Statement:

Brandeis National Committee is dedicated to providing philanthropic support to Brandeis University, a distinguished liberal arts and research university founded by the American Jewish community. Its membership is connected to the university through fundraising and through activities that reflect the values on which the university was founded: academic excellence, social justice, nonsectarianism, and service to the community.

Brandeis University policy for sharing names

"It is the policy of Brandeis University, the Brandeis National Committee, and the Conejo Valley Chapter that membership lists and event registration lists may not be shared with other organizations. They are the property of the Conejo Valley Chapter. In order to insure the privacy of each individual, our members may not use our lists for any purpose other than that for which they were created."

MEMBERSHIP UPDATES

I want to thank all of our members who have been so quick to send to me the names of prospective members. It is great that you all are sharing the fun and I enjoy talking with your friends. After the new year, we are planning to have another orientation for those who have just joined. There is so much available to our new members that we hope all of you will take advantage of this event to find out what we offer that you would enjoy. And don't forget that you gentlemen are definitely welcome. I will let you know when we have all the details. In the interim, keep the names coming to me because I just love telling all your friends about all the good that the money we raise does for Brandeis.

Study Group Committee Report for Brandeis Conejo

Winter Edition 2016

The meeting had varied agenda items:

The annual calendar of events conflicting with study groups.

Study Groups are not allowed during the hours of Board meetings and Special Events including New Board Orientation and a Study Group Appreciation Day (if that occurs). The next version of the calendar will have an asterisk next to those dates and will include the hours of those events and that calendar will be sent via email to all leaders and coordinators. The Board will make every effort to distribute those events across days of the week to avoid burdening any one particular day across the year.

New Groups: Everyone is encouraged to read the "email blast" in which VP's communicate to all, the groups that might pique your interest and that may have a few openings or are just starting up. A new photography group has begun (Wednesdays at 9:00), a Couples Movie Group, and an evening Ethnic Dining group. Check the email blast for specific information regarding these and several other groups.

Using "National's materials" for groups such as Legal Puzzlers. Some in other Brandeis areas have recently used newer documents so if you want to give them a try, let us all know what you think. Documents are available on the national Brandeis website.

Database: Susan Uhler has made excellent progress in putting together an interactive data base which ultimately will be useful for all recordkeeping regarding groups, members, membership, mailings, etc. Susan presented an outline of progress to The Board at our Board meeting the end of November. Realistically, the database will not be fully functioning for the next registration period in June.

Happy Holidays to all!

Divas at the Broad Museum

The Movie Mavens >>>> have been together for more than five years. Our lives shared, our ties knotted and our camaraderie evident. Thank you Brandeis for helping us turn from a Study Group into dear good friends.

<<<< Men's forum - Our chapter is 25% men!
Dec. 6, our chapter invited our male members to a Focus group to give them the opportunity to share their thoughts about the events and programs we now offer. We also asked what other topics would interest them in the future.

MEMBERSHIP LUNCHEON AND BOUTIQUE

Our Fall Luncheon and Boutique was again a huge success. This year we all enjoyed performance by Lesley Wolman. Everyone had a good time with good friends listening to stories and good music. The Boutique had great items for sale. The Silent Auction had a lot of interesting choices this time. We received very good reviews and comments. Thank you all who helped and made this event another wonderful experience for our chapter,

As of today we don't have a set day and a place for our Spring Speakers Event. It will be held around May 10th or 11th. We will send note to the chapter when we have a date available.
