

Featuring

Bestselling author, LISA SEE returns to talk about her new book, Island of the Sea Women, a classic Lisa See story – one of women’s friendship and the larger forces that shape them. The Island of Sea Women introduces the reader to the fierce and unforgettable female divers of Korea’s Jeju Island and the dramatic history that shaped their lives.

Island of the Sea Women has been chosen as a Barnes & Noble National Book Club selection, is among Bookbub’s Must Reads for 2019 and is included in Lit Hub’s most anticipated books of 2019.

Always a most gracious and interesting speaker, we are fortunate to have Ms. See appear and welcome her back with great enthusiasm and anticipation.

And Introducing First-Time Author, William Grubman

William Grubman is a retired businessman, philanthropist, artist, art collector, performing artist and now, author, from L.A. His knowledge of art and of Paris, along with a long-time desire to write a book, has resulted in his first novel, a gripping historical thriller.

The Storm over Paris takes place in Nazi occupied Paris, in 1942. Mori Rothstein, an art dealer and expert in master paintings has been sought after by every major museum in the world. Also seeking his expertise is Reichsmarschall Hermann Goering. As his friends and fellow Jews disappear one by one, Mori struggles to protect himself and his family by cooperating with the Germans. However, as his morals and fidelity are tested, he soon devises a risky plan to replace the most valuable paintings with forgeries prepared by his gifted son, Émile.
