Presenting

Beverly Gray is a movie maven who has covered the entertainment industry for The Hollywood Reporter and has spent her career immersed in the movie industry. She is a popular speaker, both at home and abroad. Her most exciting project yet is her newest book, Seduced by Mrs. Robinson: How The Graduate Became the Touchstone of a Generation. Its publication in November 2017 coincided with the 50th anniversary of this landmark film. Beverly will join us for an interesting conversation about movies, moviemaking and growing up near Hollywood.

Gayle Abrams is an Emmy-nominated television writer and producer whose credits include Frasier, Spin City, Gilmore Girls, 90210, 8 Simple Rules for Dating My Teenage Daughter, The Fresh Prince of Bel-Air and many others. In a recent L.A. Times article she spoke about surviving in a male-dominated world and the sexual harassment allegations going on in the entertainment business. She will share her experiences with us.

Madeleine Sherak, Phd began working in the entertainment industry fifteen years ago after a successful career as a longtime educator. In addition to TV production, she has just written her first children's book, Superheroes Club, which is the first in a series focusing on inspiring young children. Madeleine was married to the love of her life, Tom Sherak, a studio executive and former President of the Academy of Motion Picture Arts & Sciences She has many stories to tell.
