Conejo Valley Study Groups

ART GROUPS

Antique Browsers (1st W 11:45) Women

We go to art museums and homes of art collectors and enjoy lunch together. About four times a year we go to antique areas to look for that hidden treasure.

Art and About (4th TH 10:00) Women

We satisfy our curiosity of the visual arts by attending museums, private homes, artist studios, and galleries; all followed by lunch.

Gallery Girls (1st F 10:30) Women

We visit artist studios, people's home art collections, and sometimes, museums. Then we go out to lunch.

BOOK GROUPS

Book Brothers (2nd T 10:30) Men
The host selects a book for the group to read. Usually it is fiction one month and nonfiction next. Our discussion is usually continued over lunch.

Book Ends (4th M 12:00) Women
The host chooses our book. We bring our lunch and socialize for an hour and discuss the author, characters, cultural setting, and any philosophical and/or moral questions raised by the book.

Book Markers (2nd T 11:00) Women
We loosely choose books for three to five months ahead. We bring our lunch and chat as we eat. We read mostly fiction.

Book Thieves (2nd T 10:00) Women
We all choose books, six at a time for half the year. The hostess leads the discussion. We read fiction, including one classic a year.

Exploring Drama World (4th T 1:30) ALL
Sid Wilner, a professional actor, leads Brandeis Players. Scripts are distributed a month in advance and the roles for the reading are assigned one week prior to the meeting via e-mail. Everyone will read about the same amount of lines.

Literary Potpourri (1st T 10:00) Women
Books are chosen and read in advance. The hostess facilitates the group. She generally has book revues and questions from the internet. We usually go for lunch at a local restaurant after the meeting.

Monday Book Tribe (1st M 12:00) Women
Our group discusses books that we have all read the month before. We bring our own lunch, and discuss the characters and best and worst of the book. We read mainly fiction.

Mystery Mavens (3rd F 10:30) Women
Each member takes a month and picks the book and runs the meeting, always mystery books.

Tuesday Afternoon Readers (2nd T 1:00) Women

Every August we get together to choose our books for the year. We try to choose books of different genres, and our October selection is usually the Thousand Oaks, 'One City One Book'.

CURRENT EVENT GROUPS

Breaking News

(2nd F 10:30)

Women

Each month, one member hosts the meeting and selects the topics for discussion and our lunch spot after the meeting. Members are encouraged to bring articles and items of interest to the meeting for further discussion.

CE Mavens

(2nd T 9:30)

Men

The host is emails ahead of the meeting to give the time and location, and three or four discussion topics from current news. We start with regional and national announcements. The discussions are informative, lively, respectful of individual opinions, congenial and polite, and everyone gets a chance for input.

Current Chicks

(4th W 10:30)

Women

This group meets at the Agoura Library and then goes out together to lunch. They discuss current event that do not emphasis political themes and avoid movies or books. Because they are up to date ladies, they keep their discussions very current

Jewish Women of Substance (1st Thur 1:00) Women
This group is for studying Jewish women who have made an impression on the world. It is about Jewish women who have made a difference.

Mystic Mavens (3rd W 1:00) Women
We attempt to understand the nature of God and find new ways of thinking about our world and our place in the world. We all share our thoughts and are not afraid to question anything, which leads to terrific discussions.

Red Tenters (1st W 1:00) Women
This ongoing study group covers all the women and their men throughout the Old Testament from the beginning of creation. Classes are led by Rabbi Lisa Bock who hands out specific packets for us to read aloud at our meetings. We also listen to "Midrash", making connections between new Jewish realities and the unchanging biblical text.

Root Pursuits (4th Wed 1:00) All
Join this group who works under the guidance of 3 Genealogy mavens to learn how to find your family roots. They meet at the Agoura Library so that they can plug in their lap tops to use their required membership in Ancestry.com

Shabbatniks (3rd F) All
We go out to dinner and then attend Friday night Sabbath services. We visit various temples and tend to look for services that have some musical component. This year we will also be attending traditional services. We also occasionally discuss topics related to Judaism in someone's home.

LEGAL PUZZLERS GROUPS

12 Angry Women (4th T 10:00) Women

The hostess leads the meeting and the discussion of cases. Sometimes we discuss news articles or legal books that we have all read. We have also watched legal movies on our own and then come together to discuss.

Hang 'Em All (4th TH 4:00) ALL

The host for that month has the responsibility for selecting the topic for discussion, either ahead of the meeting and we all do our own research, or the host prepares handouts and we learn about the issue at the meeting.

After our discussion, we go to dinner at a local restaurant.

Legal Eagles (2nd TH 1:00) Women

The host discusses a legal topic, either a court case or a current legal issue providing documentation and lots of discussion. We also have speakers that detail legal issues... lawyers, grand jury volunteers, Immigration personnel, etc.

Legal Eyes (3rd T 10:30) Women

The hostess presents one or two legal cases or issues to discuss. We analyze and debate all the relevant points and try to learn a little about the law at the same time.

Scales of Justice (1st F 7:30 PM) Women

We discuss a legal case or ethical situation or two from 7:30 to 9:00 pm. The topic is the hosting couples' choice.

Flick Chicks (1st TH 1:00) Women

The host chooses the movie two weeks before we meet. First we meet for lunch, and then the person who is in charge leads the discussion.

Front and Center (4th Sun 5:30) ALL

The host couple selects the movie as well as the dinner destination before the meeting. We return to the host couple's home for dessert and discussion.

Les Sunday Cinema (3rd Sun 4:00) ALL

The movies are selected by the couple hosting. We see the movies on our own time. We meet and discuss movies until 6:00 pm and then dine at a restaurant of the hosts' choice.

Saturday Night Movie Critics (4th Sat 5:45 PM) ALL

We select and see a movie (on our own) and then meet at a member's home monthly to critique the movie. We rate it and then dig deeper into the movie and discuss plot, writing, directing and acting.

Movie Mavens (4th Sun 6:30 PM) ALL

The host couple chooses the movie and a restaurant to meet at first for dinner. The movie is followed with background information and discussion, led by the host couple, along with dessert and coffee.

Reel Men (1st W 4:30) Men

Once a month, we go to movies together, choosing ones that our wives would not want to see! Every member takes a turn selecting the movie and we all meet at the theatre. The member also chooses the place for dinner after the movie. We discuss the movie over dinner.

Sunday Movies & Shakers (2nd Sun 4:00) ALL

We meet together to discuss the two movies we've selected from the previous month. We discuss how we rated them and any interesting themes of the movies, acting, photography, background music, and also our reactions to the messages etc. We then vote on one movie and the host for the next month selects the second movie. We then go to dinner after in a local restaurant.

ON THE TOWN GROUPS

Daytime Divas (3rd TH) Women

Each month we visit a different venue, whether it is in Los Angeles or Ventura County. We plan our schedule a year in advance and each member is responsible for planning an event. We all vote on places to visit.

Daytime Trotters (3rd TH) Women

In December at a planning lunch, we choose our venues for the year. It could be a museum or an art gallery or gardens in the valley or beyond. This gives us all an opportunity to visit venues we might not go to ourselves.

Daytrippers (2nd TH 10:00) Women

We get together once a month as a "Ladies on the Town" type of group. However, we also do a lot of charity work in our community. We help out with Toys for Tots, the Foodbank, Ronald McDonald House, etc.

Gadabouts (3rd Sun) ALL

We meet to explore local attractions like museums, shows, exhibits, game parks, eateries, historical events, historical homes, architectural homes and anything we can do as a group.

We are a couples on-the-town group. We meet at different venues each month.

Just 4 Fun (4th W ) Women

All members take turns arranging for us to travel to an event.

Let's Go (1st T) Women

Each member arranges the outings, taking turns. We go all over Conejo Valley, San Fernando Valley and Los Angeles. We meet to carpool, so no member houses are involved. We also do lunch or brunch depending on the outing.

Men Unlimited

(4th W)

Men

We plan a destination we will visit. Our destinations have included museums, auto exhibits, various governmental agencies such as the National Weather Service, special exhibits sponsored by the Reagan Museum and the Skirball Museum. After our activity, we meet to have lunch.

Sunday Funday

(4th Sun)

ALL

We visit and tour places of interest in and around the Southern California area. We have toured Dodger Stadium, the Japanese-American Museum, the Holocaust Museum, etc. All tours are led by docents (if possible). After our tour we go out to lunch at a restaurant selected by the host & hostess.

The Sociables

(3rd in December for planning)

ALL

In December we meet at someone's home and choose partners and pick different months to get together. We go to museums, musicals, plays, events, and dinners together as a group. We also do day trips.

Tuesday Travelers

(3rd T)

Women

We meet in December to make the yearly schedule. Two hostesses decide and then plan each event.

Uptown Girls

(2nd Wed)

Women

We go, once a month, to different places of interest to us. Most we would not go to on our own. At the beginning of the new year, we meet and randomly pair off. Each pair will plan an event of their choice for the coming year for everyone to enjoy.

POTPOURRI GROUPS

Bits n' Pieces

(3rd TH 10:00)

Women

Each month a member is selected to choose the event, either in the members' houses or an outside trip. We have had discussions on a wide variety of subjects, book exchanges, making glass dishes, various arts and crafts projects, a High Tea, etc. We follow the activities with lunch.

Brandeis Knitters (4th W 3:00)

Women

Our members meet once a month and chat while we knit our own special projects. We would like to find a project that we can complete for charity.

Monday Morning Quarterback (1st M 10:00)

Men

We meet at a restaurant or someone's house. We try to get speakers or we show films on sports. It is up to the person who hosts that month. We also meet on Monday night to watch the March Madness basketball finals.

Saturday Night Live (1st Sat)

ALL

This is a diverse mixture of many different activities both in the home and out of the home. The activities are generally left to the couple planning the month's event. For example, we might have a game night, go to the movies and out to dinner, or we could discuss activities the members have participated in.

Think Tank (4th TH 10:00)
Critical Thinking (3rd Fri 10:30)

ALL

ALL
