

Brandeis University on Wheels Tuesday, January 8th, 2019

We are teaming up again with two other chapters for this event. Join the Conejo Valley, San Fernando Valley and Los Angeles Chapters on Tuesday, January 8th to learn and enjoy a presentation by Brandeis Professor Ryan McKittrick .

The American Musical from the 19th Century to "Hamilton"

Professor McKittrick's presentation includes the evolution of the American musical from its roots in the 19th century through the 20th century ("Showboat," "Porgy and Bess," "South Pacific," "Fiddler on the Roof," "Cabaret") to current Broadway hits, including "Waitress" and "Hamilton." His talk will feature scenes from famous film adaptations, as well as clips from more recent productions.

Ryan McKittrick is Assistant Professor of Theater Arts at Brandeis University and the Director of Artistic Programs/Dramaturg at the American Repertory Theater (A.R.T.). Working with directors from around the world, he has served as the lead dramaturg on more than thirty professional productions of dramas, musicals, and operas, over half of which were world premieres. His articles on theater have appeared in many publications.
